Numb. 6613.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 7. to Tuesday October 10. 1727.

St. James's, October 10.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burghers of the Ancient Borough of Cockermouth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Wilfrid Lawſon, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burghers of the Ancient Borough of Cockermouth, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of His late Majeſty your Royal Father, of glorious Memory.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Senſe of this great Loſs to all Europe, and particularly to theſe Kingdoms; a Loſs that could have no Ways been made up to us but by the immediate Interpoſition and Goodneſs of the Divine Providence, in placing your Majeſty upon the Throne of your Anceſtors.

When we behold in your Majeſty thoſe many princely Qualities which add Luſtre to the Crown you wear, we cannot but eſteem ourſelves a happy People under your auſpicious Government: From your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, we reſt ſecured of the full Enjoyment of all our Civil and Religious Rights; from your Knowledge and Experience of the Laws and Conſtitution of the Kingdom, we are fully ſatisfied we ſhall be governed by a juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration; and from that conſpicuous Valour (of which you gave the World ſuch early Proofs) we promiſe ourſelves, we ſhall be defended in our lawful Poſſeſſions from the Encroachments of all our Enemies.

We are likewiſe made doubly happy by your Royal Conſort, who has ſet an Example to all ſucceeding Ages, of the moſt exalted Vertue, and a Mind truly great. Her Majeſty's private Life affords the beſt Pattern of the moſt unaffected Zeal for Religion, a ſincere Love and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, and a pious Care of the Education of the Royal Iſſue, the moſt ſure and laſting Pledge of all our future Happineſs.

For theſe great Bleſſings we think ourſelves indiſpenſably obliged to act with the utmoſt Vigour in ſupport of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and chearfully to ſubmit to the neceſſary Burthens for the carrying on that great Deſign.

We do further aſſure your Majeſty, we will upon all Occaſions exert ourſelves for the rendring your Reign Eaſy and Proſperous, for which your Majeſty has our unfeigned and moſt ardent Prayers.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders, aſſembled at the Grand Seſſions held for the County of Brecon, the 24th Day of Auguſt 1727, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Gwyn Vaughan, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

PErmit us, gracious Sovereign, to condole you on the Death of your late Royal Father; and congratulate your ſo eaſy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne.

Your Majeſty's free Declaration of maintaining inviolably your People in the full Enjoyment of their Religious and Civil Rights, and your Reſolution of laying down the Laws of the Land for the Meaſures of your Government, demand, and ſhall ever meet with the juſt Tribute of Gratitude and Obedience from us your faithful Subjects, and expreſſed by a ſteady Adherence to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and by unwearied Endeavours to promote the Peace of your Reign, which we truly wiſh may be long and happy; and that when it ſhall pleaſe the Almighty you exchange this for a heavenly Diadem, one of your Royal Iſſue may ſucceed to your Crown and Virtues.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert

[Price Two-Pence.]

Robert Hucks, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chesterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our hearty Concern for the Death of your late Royal Father of glorious and blessed Memory; and to congratulate your Majesty's happy and peaceful Accession to the Throne of these your Ancestors Kingdoms.

Your Majesty's Royal Word and Promise, that the Preservation of the established Constitution of this Kingdom in Church and State, and the securing to your People the full Enjoyment of their Religious and Civil Rights, and the Happiness of your Subjects, shall be your constant and principal Care; and the uncommon Steadiness of your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen in the Protestant Religion, fills our Hearts with the utmost Joy, and demands (what we now profess and solemnly assure your Majesty of) our utmost Gratitude, Duty and Obedience to your Majesties.

May no factious Disputes disturb the Peace of your Government; may there be no Emulation among your Subjects, but in shewing their Loyalty to your Majesty; may you always meet such a Parliament, as will fully answer your known Intentions of making your People happy.

May those Virtues which are constantly practised and encouraged by your Majesty, move Almighty God to grant you a long, quiet and happy Reign over us, and that the Crown of these Realms may always continue in your Illustrious House.

Given under our common Seal the 5th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Bootle, and Thomas Brereton, Esqrs. and Thomas Ashhurt, Esq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our deepest Concern for the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; and to congratulate your Majesty and the Queen your Royal Consort, on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

The repeated Instances of your Majesty's affectionate Regard for this Nation, before you ascended the Throne, confirmed by the fatherly Declarations, and Assurances which you have since made, inspire us with the strongest Sense of Gratitude, and afford us the most amiable Prospect of Glory to yourself, and of Peace, Plenty and Prosperity to all your People.

As your Majesty has been pleased for several Years past to make the Knowledge of our Constitution one of your chief Enquiries, we esteem ourselves secure in the Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights under your auspicious Government; and doubt not, but the Encrease of Trade, and the Reduction of our publick Debts, (upon which the Welfare of the Kingdom doth so much depend) will be the happy Result of your just and prudent Administration.

Give us Leave, Sir, on our Parts to assure your Majesty of our sincerest Wishes, that you may long reign over us in Peace; or if the Malignancy or ambitious Views of any foreign Powers should disturb your Government, and involve us in a necessary War, that your Arms may be always Victorious, and your Counsels Successful.

And as we are fully convinced of your Majesty's Royal Disposition to make us an happy People, so we shall always contribute our Endeavours to make you a great, a powerful, and a glorious King; to which we shall constantly add our Prayers to Almighty God, that He will direct your Majesty in the Choice of your Councellours, and protect your Government from those Calamities and Misfortunes which are incident to the Reigns of the best and wisest Princes.

The following humble Address has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Tyrconnel, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chesterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Alderman, Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, Comburgesses, Town-Clerk, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to condole your Majesty for the Death of our late most excellent King your Royal Father, whose Memory must be ever dear and valuable to all true Lovers of their Country, since settling the Peace of Europe upon a lasting Foundation, by a just Balance of Power Abroad, and the Safety and Happiness of his Subjects at Home, were the chief Ends of his Government.

These

These great publick Bleſſings are ſecured to us by your Majeſty's peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; who, as you inherit the Virtues as well as Crown of your Royal Father, the univerſal Joy and Applauſe with which your Majeſty aſcended the Throne, more than was ever ſeen upon the like Occaſion, ſhews how entirely your Majeſty is poſſeſt of the Hearts of all your People.

May the ſame Zeal and Unanimity ever continue; may there be no other Strife or Contention amongſt us, but who ſhall ſhew their Loyalty and Duty to your Majeſty beſt, and their Love to their Country moſt. The Wiſdom and Prudence of your Majeſty's Government, when left Regent, in his late Majeſty's Abſence, was ſufficient to give us the greateſt Hopes of Happineſs from your Majeſty's Government, upon your Acceſſion to the Crown.

The Knowledge your Majeſty has of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State, has produced in you a Love of it; and as your Majeſty has generouſly expoſed your Sacred Life for the Honour and Intereſt of theſe Kingdoms, we are ſure your Valour and Reſolution, for which the Houſe of Brunſwick has ever been ſo famous, will be always employed for the Preſervation of it.

The generous Diſregard her gracious Majeſty the Queen ſhewed for the greateſt Crown, when it interfered with her Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, is well rewarded by Heaven by the Crown ſhe now adorns; but much more ſo by her Royal Conſort; when we ſee your Majeſty bleſſed with a Royal Iſſue, worthy the noble Stock from which they are deſcended, Heaven ſeems to have cruſh'd all the Hopes of our Enemies, and will, we hope, perpetuate to us a Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family, the greateſt Security we can have for our Religion, Laws, Liberties and Properties.

The following humble Addreſs of the Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel in Foreign Parts, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents, and the reſt of the Members of the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel in Foreign Parts, beg Leave with all Humility to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty, both to expreſs our Condolance for the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign, and to declare at the ſame Time our unfeigned Joy upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

When we conſider your Majeſty's early Declaration of your tender Concern for our Religion, as well as for our Laws and Liberties, and your known Diſpoſition to encourage every thing that tends to promote either the temporal or eternal Happineſs of your Subjects; We of this Society, out of our Zeal for the good Work we have undertaken, cannot but throw ourſelves at your Majeſty's Feet, in order to implore your moſt gracious Protection and Patronage.

We do not, we need not recommend to your Majeſty that which is the great End and Deſign of our Society, viz. The ſpreading the Light of the Goſpel in the yet dark Corners of the Earth; we are ſenſible that this cannot be more heartily wiſhed for and deſired by ourſelves, than it is by your moſt Excellent Majeſty: In this we are already happy, and happier ſhall we ſtill be, if the Meaſures we take ſhall be at all Times ſo conducted, as to meet with your Majeſty's Approbation.

We cannot but with the utmoſt Pleaſure obſerve the Encouragement we have to go on with the greateſt Chearfulneſs under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, when we behold in your Royal Perſon all thoſe princely Qualifications that can give Life and Spirit to every good and pious Undertaking; and when we ſee your Majeſty happy in a Royal Conſort, whoſe very eminent and extraordinary Regard to Religion has moſt juſtly made her the Darling of the preſent Age, and will entitle her to the Praiſes of the lateſt Poſterity.

May your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and proſperous; and may you never want the Delight and Satisfaction to ſee true Religion and Righteouſneſs flouriſhing and encreaſing in every Part of your Dominions. Given under our common Seal this 20th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1727.

St. James's, October 7.

This Day the King went to Hounſlow-Heath, where the Regiments of Horſe commanded by the Major-Generals Gore and Honywood, paſſed in Review before His Majeſty, and made a very fine Appearance.

Whitehall, October 10.

John Anderſon, Brownlow Sherrard, and Joſeph Aſhley, Eſqrs. are ſworn Gentlemen Uſhers of His Majeſty's Privy-Chamber.

Henry Gardie, Eſq; is ſworn Gentleman-Uſher Daily-Waiter Aſſiſtant.

Members choſen for the enſuing Parliament.

Shrewsbury, Sir John Aſtley, Bart. Richard Lyſter, Eſq;

Carmarthen County, Lord Viſcount Lisburne.

York City, Sir William Milner, Edward Thompſon, Eſq;

Burghs of Kirkwall, Dornock, Tayne, Week, and Dingwall, Col. Robert Munro.

Victualling